Property description

After a long history of more than 40 years and with a consolidated clientele, the “Bar Zeta”, located in the Figueretas area, is sold for retirement. A special and charming place that does not go unnoticed, a whole museum of memories and traditions that decorate its walls and transport you to another place. Famous for its ham cut and selection of Iberian hams.
The Zeta Bar is distributed on an outdoor terrace of approximately 10 m2, through which you can access the premises, a main room, two bathrooms, storage room and another bathroom for the staff, all with a total area of approximately 109 m2.
With the possibility of making smoke outlet.
